PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

An aspiring AI Engineer and versatile developer with a strong foundation in Artificial Intelligence and Workflow Automation. Experienced in building scalable solutions using C++, Python, and modern automation tools. Proven ability to apply complex data structures and algorithmic thinking to real-world problems, with a focus on creating efficient, autonomous systems.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Programming: Python (AI/ML), C++ (STL & Classes), JavaScript, MIPS Assembly
Web Development: HTML5, CSS3 (Flexbox & Box Model), Frontend Portfolio Design
AI & Automation: Make.com, Zapier, AI Task Prioritization, Google Workspace Integration
Databases: SQL, Database Management, Chen's Notation for ERD Design
Languages: Urdu (Native), English (Professional), Chinese (Introductory)

KEY PROJECTS

AI-Driven Autonomous Task Manager Make.com, Gemini, Google Sheets

- Developed an autonomous system using Make.com to prioritize tasks based on custom logic.
- Integrated Google Sheets, Gmail, and Google Calendar to automate scheduling and tracking.
- Designed a "Watchdog" feature to send automated reminders 24 hours before deadlines.

Hospital Management System C++, OOP, STL

- Architected a management system using Object-Oriented Programming (OOP) principles in C++.
- Utilized Standard Template Library (STL) and classes to handle patient records efficiently.

Database Systems Design SQL, Chen's Notation

- Engineered detailed Entity-Relationship Diagrams (ERDs) using Chen's Notation for complex scenarios.
